WELCOME MESSAGE FROM ORGANISING COMMITTEE

Dear Colleague,

The Organising Committee cordially invites you to the FOGSI Conclave – Preventive Oncology 2026, themed "Learn the Power of Prevention," to be held on 29th & 30th August 2026. This landmark academic event brings together renowned experts from across the country to discuss the latest advances in preventive oncology, with a special focus on genetics, HPV vaccination, breast and gynecological cancers, cervical cancer screening, colposcopy, and evidence-based management of pre-invasive disease.

The scientific programme features thought-provoking lectures, panel discussions, hands-on workshops, free paper presentations, and interactive sessions designed to enhance both knowledge and clinical skills. Whether you are a practicing obstetrician and gynecologist, gynecologic oncologist, or postgraduate trainee, this conclave offers an excellent opportunity to learn, network, and contribute towards advancing women's cancer prevention. We look forward to welcoming you for two inspiring days of academic excellence and collaboration.

Warm Regards,
Organising Committee
